Statements About Activities-Scholarship Award Process

Smith/Shaver Scholarship awards are open to all North Carolina residents who attend or will attend one of five specified law schools located in North Carolina: the law schools at Campbell University, Incorporated, Duke University, North Carolina Central University, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and Wake Forest University. Scholarships are full tuition or partial tuition and generally range between $5,000 and $20,000 per year. Scholarships are extended to students who have been accepted at one of the specified law schools and are automatically renewable for the second and third years of law school provided the recipient remains in good standing with his or her law school.

Scholarships are awarded to students at one of the specified law schools and are specific to that law school. Awards are based primarily on need.

Currently, a student accepted at one of the specified law schools and who requests financial assistance is eligible provided that student is a North Carolina resident. The Smith/Shaver Law School Scholarship Fund Inc. works with the Admissions Office of the law schools and offers scholarships based on recommendations made by a law school with respect to applicants accepted by that law school. Lump-sum payments are made to the law schools and allocated by the law schools.

There are no restrictions or limitations based upon race or the employment status of the prospective recipient or any relative of the prospective recipient. Scholarships awards are not based on the employment status of the applicant or any relative of the applicant.

The Smith/Shaver Law School Scholarship Fund, Inc. was established pursuant to the Order of the Honorable Howard E. Manning, Jr., North Carolina Superior Court Judge, by a grant from the Settlement Fund created in the consolidated class action Donald L. Smith, et al. v. State of North Carolina and Manila G. Shaver v. State of North Carolina.
